Annual Mary's Hour Scheduled

Mary's Hour, annual devotion to the Virgin Mary, will be held this year on Sunday, May 7, in Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum, it was announced yesterday by Rev. John P. Languille, director.

The theme this year will be "Our Lady Queen of Angels, Reign Over Your Children and Protect Us."

Catholic college students, who originated the event here 13 years ago, have the responsibility of planning and preparing the program, including general promotion throughout some 300 parishes of the Archdiocese and manning the field and parking lots.

Committee members represent Loyola University, Immaculate Heart College, Marymount College, Mount St. Mary's College, Queen of Angeles School of Nursing, St. Vincent's College of Nursing and Newman Clubs of Southern California.

Established Jan. 1, 1914

Boy Scout Troop 753
 Boy Scout Troop 753 held its Court of Honor March 21 at 7:30 p.m. in the Madison School.

Scoutmaster Edward Murawski welcomed the group and introduced Ed Brady, area commissioner of the Boy Scouts, who made several presentations. "The Scouter's Award" was given to Edward Murawski and Bill Russell was presented his Star rank.

Special awards were given to Bill Ament, quartermaster;

Lonny Miller, patrol leader; Dean Stuart and Floyd Wilkins, assistant patrol leaders; Bill Russell, senior patrol leader, and Edward Murawski, librarian.

Six boys became tenderfoot Scouts: Lyle Boeck, John Murawski, David Hansen, Merritt Shiveley, Paul Hakala and Carl S yder.

Second class ranks went to nine Scouts: Dean Stuart, Fred Alvarez, Joe Verduzco, Barry Morrison, Ricky Morrison, Floyd Wilkins, Nick DiBernnardo, Willy Boell and James Maurer. Three year service pins were earned by Bill Russell and Steve Walton.

Edward Murawski received a Merit Badge for Citizenship in the Home and Public Health. Bill Russell received his Merit Badges in Safety, Cycling and Public Health.

The Troop recently attended the Sports and Travel Show where they participated in the Flapjack booth and also went to the Campout, held at the Firestone Reservation
